3. SCOPE, AVAILABILITY AND MODIFICATIONS

3.1 Scope of Service. The Service is intended to enable transactions between the Supplier and Buyers as principals and C2FO does not act for or represent in any way either the Supplier or any Buyers. C2FO is not a party to, third party beneficiary of, or a guarantor of performance with respect to any transaction, agreement or arrangement concluded between the Supplier and any Buyer using the Service. Specifically, (i) C2FO does not control the quality, safety, legality or availability of the content or services accessed through the Service, the terms and conditions on which the Content, goods, and/or related services accessed are provided, or the Suppliers’ compliance with any agreement that it may execute with a Buyer; (ii) C2FO undertakes no duties to receive or distribute any payments agreed by the Supplier and any Buyer; and (iii) under no circumstances shall C2FO in any manner obtain an interest in, or otherwise be deemed to be within the chain of title of, any Content, goods, and/or related services accessed of the Supplier. When accelerated invoices relate to Buyers from the UK, the award file requires a Supplier, where appropriate, to post an adjustment to VAT records. The Supplier may treat the award file as an appropriate document to adjust VAT records pursuant to Regulation 24 of SI 1994/2518. Please note that the responsibility of ensuring an accurate VAT adjustment is posted rests solely with the Supplier and is not C2FO's responsibility because the information on the award file is based on what the Buyer has previously uploaded into the Service. As applicable, Supplier designates C2FO as a limited purpose agent to issue credit notes (including in the form of a modified Award File) on behalf of Supplier signifying the acceptance of discount through the Service in return for an Accelerated Payment. In the event Buyer makes an Accelerated Payment to Supplier on a non-disputed invoice displayed as eligible in the Service (“Invoice”) and the related vendor (“Vendor”) subsequently disputes that payment of the Invoice or the Vendor otherwise fails to reimburse Buyer for that payment for any reason including bankruptcy (an “Invalid Payment”), Supplier agrees that (a) it will repay the Invalid Payment to Buyer upon demand, and (b) in order to facilitate such repayment, at Buyer’s election, Buyer may either (i) apply the Invalid Payment in satisfaction of one or more other Supplier Invoices (which may or may not relate to the Vendor involved with the Invalid Payment), or (ii) withdraw (by ACH “right of debit” or other means) the amount of the Invalid Payment directly from Supplier’s account into which it was deposited (in which case Supplier shall reimburse Buyer directly within 48 hours of receipt of Buyer’s request for the amount of the Invalid Payment to the extent it was not recovered directly from Supplier’s account). In any event, Supplier’s right of recovery related to the Invalid Payment shall be against Vendor only and not against Buyer. Hereinafter, the methods of recovery available to Buyer pursuant to subsections (i) and (ii) are referred to as “Recovery Methods.” Supplier shall reimburse Buyer immediately upon request, through reapplication of a prior payment, application against subsequent bills or through direct payment, for any payment by Buyer to Supplier of Invoices assigned by Supplier to a third party. In the event of an assignment by Supplier of Vendor Invoices to a third party, Supplier will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and its affiliates from any and all losses, damages, liabilities, claims or costs (including but not limited to attorneys’ fees and costs) arising out of any payment by Buyer to Supplier of an assigned Invoice (collectively, “Assignment Losses”).
